IP Osgoode Internship – Canadian Intellectual Property Council

Job Posting Details

Application deadline: May 15, 2009
Scheduled hours: 15 hours per week (summer)
Salary range: Unpaid internship

"Intellectual Property, the Creative Ecosystem and the Digital Age"

The Canadian Intellectual Property Council is looking for an intern to assist in the development of a report on the intersection between IP and the creative ecosystem in the digital age.

The intern will provide a substantive review of the secondary literature (both legal and economic), assist with a summary of policy principles and international best practices, and analyze case studies on the development of creative content in the Internet economy. Some prior knowledge of intellectual property is required.

There will be flexibility with regard to hours and the majority of the work may be done remotely.

For more information, please contact: Chris Gray, Director, CIPC (PH) 613-238-4000 x251, cgray@chamber.ca or Aaron Sawchuk (PH) 416-967-7272.

To apply, please send a copy of your resume, cover letter and transcripts (undergraduate and graduate) to Chris Gray (also copying IP Osgoode at iposgoode@osgoode.yorku.ca):
